WBP High School to College Baseball Recruitment Planning Program Testimonials

Worldwide Baseball Prospects has been instrumental in helping our son focus his efforts to find a college baseball placement. The website is packed with vital information and helpful contacts for anyone wanting to manage the process of being or getting recruited. WBP helps players to assess their abilities and then to target programs that match their abilities and their interests. Everyone we have contacted through the website, whether professional scout or college admissions counselor, has been friendly and helpful. If we are feeling confused or have questions, WBP is always there to lend perspective with a smile.

Worldwide Baseball Prospects offers incredible service at a great price.

Parents - Ginna and Norman

What drew me to be involved with the WBP was their dedication to being personally involved in not only assisting these young men to maximize their potential to play the great game of baseball beyond their high school years, but more importantly, they focus intensely on helping them get a quality education and develop the character that will prepare them, to one day, be great players in the game of life.
